Stricklett May Come.

Pitcher Stricklett, formerly of the Coast league, but who is now playing with the Chicago Americans, may come to Sail Lake, but nothing has been definitely decided about him as yet. It is understood that an offer has been made to Stricklett, but as yet he has failed to come to terms. The local management wants him pretty badly however, and it is quite likely that he will be seen here before many moons.

school. Conch Callahan has succeeded in bringing out three winning teams. Last fall his feotball boys defeated the Ogdenites on the gridiron and last Saturday he again vanquished them on the track. The work accomplished by the school baseball team speaks for itself. The boys have passed through the entire season without a single defeat and during this time they have locked horns with the best amateur teams in the city.

The new officers of the athletic association are: John Kephari, president; Frank Critchlow, second vice-president; Curtis Clawson, secretary; Hume Clive, treasurer; Arthur Parsons, press agent. The board of directors is Hans Hansen, James Roberts and L. M. Gillespie Next fall the incoming freshmen class and the East Siders will have the privilege of electing representatives to this board. The stucents at the Bryant High school will also have the privilege of electing a first vice-president.

The members of the track team also held a meeting and elected Fred Richmond captain and Fred Hale manager.

The treasurer of the athletic association reports that there is now more money on hand and more first-class parapherralia than ever before in the listory of the association. Delmas and Bruyette Distinguish Therselves by Some Clever Fielding.

Special to The Tribune. OISE, Ida., May 19.-It was a case of "smack and get it" in today's game between the Elders and the Fruit Pickers. The wind carried the ball every which way and blew dust in the eyes of the players. The fielding on both sides was rather weird at supreme moments, and, in the parlance of the race track, the game should be "thrown out." Thompson's hoodoo clung to him tenalously, the Fruit Pickers falling down behind him in every inning in which Salt Lake scored. That the Elders won is nothing to Thompson's discredit, nor can any great amount of glory attach to the manner in which Boise's eight runs were scored. Starkells went into the box in the seventh, and the Elders falled to do any business with him. Wiggs was wild up to the seventh, when he settled down and pitched fine ball. Marshall made a swell catch of Weed's fly in the first swell catch of Weeds fly in the first taking the ball well over into Weaver's balliwick Bruyette got a good hand on his stop of O'Connell's hit in the fourth. Houtz made the most spectacular catch of the season in the fourth, nipping a limit for Claik which should have been good for two runs at least. The work of Delmas at second was conspicuously good. His chances were all difficult and he handled them fast and clean. There were pounds of wool on Cook.
